

There's a problem with Harry. It's not because he's got a new baby brother named Tom; it's not because he's in love with Jane. Harry's bedroom's just a mess! It's so messy, his mum's very angry. And now, Harry's got a problem with his mum! Look at this! A computer's under the bed, there's a book behind the chair and Tom's Teddy bear's on the floor... Harry's got sunglasses in his shoes and food on the desk. But...shhh...Harry's coming... I think he's looking after Jane's jacket. Can you find it?
